M HORSE SACRIFICED TO SAVE PEOPLE.

A thrilling escape of a passenger train on the Delaware, Luckawanna and Western Railroad occurred on the high bridge over the Passaic River near Paterson, N. J., on Monday night. The bridge is ninety Two trains are not allowed feet above the stream. to cross at once, and the Boonton accommodation, going west, stopped at the eastern end of the bridge await until an east-bound coal train had crossed. The train had not yet attained great headway when, on the bridge, the engineer saw ahead of him two horses struggling and kicking with their legs entangled in the timbers between the rails. The air brakes were applied and the train was brought to a standstill with the pilot of the engine almost upon one of the horses. The trainmen, assisted by passengers, went to work to extricate the horses, and one of them was with great labor and risk got loose and led off along the narrow foot-path of boards which runs between the tracks. The other horse could not be rescued and was hurled down to the rushing river The horses had been pastured in a field near the western end of the bridge and had wandered upon it. They had evidently walked about half way over on the narrow foot-path when the ap-proaching coal train frightened them and they got on the open timber work between the rails of the west-bound track.

DEMAS BARNES'S BROOKLYN HOME SOLD. The Brooklyn home of Demas Barnes, formerly a member of Congress, was offered at auction yesterday by John F. B. Smyth, at the Real Estate Exchange. It will be remembered that Mr. Barnes had purchased for himself a fine house, No. 41 Fifty-seventh-st., New-York, at a cost of $165,000. Shortly after this pur-chase was made, he was knocked down by a street ear and, although not believed to be dangerously injured, he never thoroughly recovered from the shock and eventually died. The property offered yesterday is situated in First Place, Brooklyn, being Nos. 84, 86 and 88, on the south side, 125 feet west of Court-st. Dr. Satteriee, of Calvary Church, and the Rev. J. N. Steele, rector of the Episcopal Church of Wappingers Falls which Mr. Suydam attended while staying at his country home. The burial anthem "Just as I am, without one plea" was sung by the full surpliced choir. F. W. Jameson sang by the solo, arranged by Cowen, "Come unto Me." As a recessional the choir sang "Hark, Hark, my Soul!" The body was placed in the Suydam family vault, in St. Mark's Church-yard.

PALSE REPORTS OF EXCISE VIOLATIONS. Mr. Moss, lawyer of the Society for the Prevention of Crime, recently wrote a letter to the Police Board demanding that the sale of liquor be stopped on Sundays at a number of places about which reports had been made by the society's detectives. Several police captains had declared that the reports were without foundation. Captain McLaughlin, of the Old-Slip squad, arrested two of the society's detectives, and proved that they had been making false reports, and also that they were trying to levy blackmall on liquor dealers. Yesterday the Police Board listened to the reading of another letter from Mr. Moss, admitting that previous reports to the society had been untrustworthy, but offering to furnish new lists of places at which the Excise law was violated. Chief Clerk Kipp was directed to reply that the Police Board would be glad to receive the information offered.

CONTRACT LABOREES HELD.

Two Bohemian tinsmiths named Korazark and Vedderar, were landed at Castle Garden yesterday from the North German Lloyd steamer Elbe. The men stated that they had been in this country before and travelled about as journeymen tinsmiths and pedlers to Europe, bringing back four tinsmiths of their own to Europe, bringing back four this mine of their owork pationality, with whom they made contracts to work for two years for a salary of $1 a day and their board. Superintendent Simpson, of the Landing Bureau at Castle Garden, detained the four men pending Collector Magone's decision as to whether they shall be permitted to land or be returned to Europe.

DID MRS. SCHILLING STAB HERSELF? TESTIMONY IN FAVOR OF HER HUSBAND TO SHOW THAT SHE RAN AGAINST THE KNIFE BY ACCIDENT.

The trial of Frederick Schilling on a charge of killing wife was continued yesterday before Judge Gildersleeve in the General Sessions Court. Assistants Davis and Dawson, of the District-Attorney's office, conducted the prosecution. Dr. William F. Jenkins testified as to the depth of the wound. The wound made by the knife, he said, was thirty-nine inches above the woman's feet. Police Sergeant Campbell testified im mediately afterward that the block on which Schilling says he threw the knife was only twenty-nine inches high. From this the prosecution will argue that the wound could not be inflicted by accident. Policemen Martin and Tomphins corroborated the testimony given by Captain Gunner as to the two statements of the affair made by Schilling. The prosecution then closed their case. Unexpected and important testimony was given by Policeman Roach, who had been summoned by the prosecution, but was not called as a witness. A note from an acquaintance informed Mr. Purdy, Schilling's counsel, that Roach could throw some light on the The officer went to the witness chair and was asked as to his knowledge of the case. He said that he was the first policeman called after the murder He talked with Schilling and the policeman suggested that they go into the butcher shop to find the knife. The policeman found the knife on the block. The handle was partly under a fifty-pound piece of meat which lay on the block. The blade of the knife extended outward six or eight inches over the edge of the block. The position was such that a person rut ning against it might receive a wound similar to that from which Mrs. Schilling died. Mr. Purdy said afterward that Schilling did not notice where Policeman Ronch had found the knife, and, of course, had said nothing to him about that piece of testimony. The theory of the defence is that Mrs. Schilling in reaching for a piece of meat ran the knife into her abdomen The store was dimly lighted when the wound was re-

Several witnesses for the defence were called to show that Schilling had a good reputation. Eichler, one of the witnesses before the Coroner, testi-fied that Mrs. Schilling said immediately after she was stabbed: "I have stabbed myself." The trial will probably be finished to-day.

TEMPTED TO STEAL THAT HE MIGHT BET. John Hayden, a clerk in the employ of Kinney West Twenty-second-st., was arraigned yesterday beore Justice Ford at the Jefferson Market Court, on a charge of forgery preferred by E. F. Smith, treasurer of the firm, and was committed for trial. Hayden is about twenty-four years old, and has been in the employ of the firm only since April. He was arrested on Monday night, and in his pocket were found two heeks on the Second National Bank, with the signature of Edward F. Smith forged upon them. One was for $675 and the other for $40. He was in the was for $675 and the other for $40. He was in the habit of betting on the races, and lost his money in that way. When arrested he was much broken down, saying that he would kill himself, as he could not live and face disgrace. Treasurer Smith vesterday refused to say anything about the case, as he said it was not of sufficient account to merit attention.
